Color Me Pink effort is to raise money for mammograms for women unable to afford them. Lane-Riefler's goal for the Saturday event is $30,000, or, in her words, "a whole bunch of money that we need to do the job." The baskets, produced in Dublin, Ohio, for many years, were distributed to businesses, organizations and individuals with one idea: Fill them with donated merchandise so that they can be auctioned Saturday.

The event, open to the public, will be a silent auction limited to the two-hour morning session at the park. Lane-Riefler said Cancer Services has lost about half of its normal financial support this year, mainly because COVID restrictions have prevented traditional events, such as the annual Walk of Hope. Thus, the proceeds from Saturday's auction will be "a very big deal."

Foundation has been addressing in many ways since 2015. Therefore, the addition of this impact investment will simply be another layer of support for our community that will greatly complement the annual grantmaking we do to bolster the important work being done by multiple local non-profit organizations."

Afena will manage the alternative payday lending program and use their specific lending knowledge to develop the loan terms and under-writing criteria, as well as designate a certified loan officer as a program ambassador. This staff member will be primarily responsible for meeting families where they are, such as schools, workplaces, local nonprofits, etc., and removing barriers to accessing the program. The program will also include financial coaching for all loan recipients. As the loans are paid back, Afena will be able to re-invest the available funding to assist even more families in need.

"It is the philosophy of Afena Federal Credit Union to work with our members to improve their financial health", said Karen Madry, President/CEO of Afena. "In other words, our focus is not on making loans, but putting our members in a better financial position."

NOTICE TO UNNAMED FATHER

The unnamed putative father of the child born to ALLISON HEADY on 5/16/2014 or the person who claims to be the father of the child born to ALLISON HEADY on 5/16/2014, is notified that a petition or the adoption of the child was filed on April 24th, 2020, in the office of the Clerk of Grant Superior Court 2, 101 E. 4th St. #210 Marion, IN 46952.

If the putative father wishes to contest the adoption of the child, the unnamed putative father must file a motion to contest the adoption in accordance with IC 31-19-10-1 in the above named court or a paternity action under IC 31-14 within thirty (30) days after the service of this notice. This notice may be served by publication.

If the putative father does not file a motion to contest the adoption or a paternity action under IC 31-14 within thirty (30) days after service of this notice; or after filing a paternity action under IC 31-14 fails to establish paternity within a reasonable period as determined by the paternity court under IC 31-14-21-9 through IC 31-14-21-11, the above named court shall hear and determine the petition for adoption. The putative father's consent is irrevocably implied, and the putative father loses the right to contest the adoption or the validity of the putative father's implied consent to the adoption. The putative father loses the right to establish paternity of the child under IC 31-14.

Nothing ALLISON HEADY or anyone else says to the putative father relieves the putative father of his obligations under this notice.

Under Indiana law, a putative father is a person who is named as or claims that he may be the father of a child born out of wedlock but who has not yet been legally proven to be the child's father.

This notice complies with IC 31-19-4-4 but does not exhaustively set forth the putative father's legal obligations under the Indiana adoption statutes. A person being served with this notice should consult the Indiana adoption statutes.
