Winners named in Lewis essay contest

On Saturday, Sept. 19, 2020, a Celebrating the Life of Congressman John Lewis Commemorative Tree Planting Dedication Ceremony took place at the Clarence Faulkner Community Center in Marion.

Tied to this memorable event was an Essay Contest for all Grant County students of all levels with essays focusing on some aspect of the life of Congressman Lewis.

Grant County students in public schools, private schools, home schooled, and higher education institutions were hired to take part. Each essay contest entrant received a certificate of participation and a coupon to a local restaurant. In addition to participation certificates and coupons, First Place winners received small bag of gifts and a cash
