

Madison-Grant drops regular season finale

By Sean Douglas

In the final week of the regular season, Madison-Grant relished stiff competition, knowing it was preparing them for their playoff push.

“That’s what it’s all about,” Madison-Grant Head Coach Havens said. “It’s about the tournament. It’s about facing good competition prior to the tournament because you are going to face good competition in the tournament.”

They started the week with a 5-4 victory over a talented Columbia City team before dropping a close 5-3 decision to No. 2 ranked Yorktown.

And, on Friday night at Jay Dunlap Field, a three-run first inning for the Huntington North Vikings proved to be the difference as the Argylls ended the regular season with a 4-1 loss.

Huntington North’s Kianna Jennings led off the contest with a bunt single, and two batters later, Emma Helvie drove her home with an RBI double to left field. Two batters after that, Maddie Levy followed suit, doubling home Helvie to increase the Vikings’ lead to 2-0.

Megan Stephan capped off Huntington North of-fensive push in the first frame with an RBI single, and the Vikings’ lead was never threatened.

“In that first inning we gave up a couple of doubles,” Haven said. “We had a couple of balls go past us or over our head. It sucks to give up three runs in the first inning.”

The Argylls were able to make solid contact throughout the evening, but the Vikings’ defense made several tremendous defensive plays to keep Madison-Grant from finding much offensive success.

Furthermore, the Argylls left seven runners on base, including two in each the first, second, and third innings.

“We had a couple of chances to get a few more [runs,]” Havens said. “But we just didn’t have enough offense. We hit the ball hard, but we hit it right at kids. Their shortstop, their centerfielder, and their left-fielder all made good plays.”

Chelsea Parker led the Argylls’ offense with two hits in three at-bats, while Daya Greene finished with one hit and scored Madison-Grant’s lone run in the third inning. Elizabeth Lee finished with a double, while Sarah Duncan also recorded a hit in the Argylls’ loss.

However, despite the defeat, Havens is confident that his team is ready for the playoff push. Madison-Grant begins postseason play against conference foe Blackford on Tuesday.

“We picked up these games knowing it was going to be good competition,” Havens said. “We felt we would be competitive, and I think we were. It’s about Blackford and Tuesday night. I feel good about our team.”
