lead the district's work to take full advantage of the opportunities provided by Elementary and Secondary Emergency Education Relief federal grant funds. His focus will include accelerated learning and extended day and extended year options for MCS students; family and community engagement; and educator support.

"I am excited for this leadership opportunity," Burke said. "Marion has become home to me, and I relish the opportunity to continue to serve in this community that is so dear to me."

A revitalization of the MHS campus, including dynamic displays for the MHS Hall of Distinction, the MHS Arts Hall of Fame, and the MHS Athletics Hall of Fame, individual team histories, and conference and state titles; a turf football field; a spirit gear store; a modernized cafeteria, and more.

The addition of many new classes, including dozens of new college credit opportunities and available career certifications.

Continuous improvement, as each year's graduating class surpassed their predecessors for college credits earned, Advanced Placement honors awarded, and career certifications earned.

The expansion of the music education program, including the restart of the marching band program after decades of dormancy, and the 2021 Total Department All-Music Award, IHSAA's highest honor.

He earned his bachelor's degree in education, master's degree in educational leadership, and his Educational Specialist degree from Oakland City University in Oakland, Ind. Originally from the Vincennes area, he started his career as a teacher and coach in Madisonville, Ky., and then served in various roles including teacher, coach, athletic director, and building administrator at various IPS schools before coming to Marion Community Schools.

He and his family have been engaged in and committed to Marion Community Schools and the community of Marion for the last seven years, and MCS is excited for what the future holds as he joins the district administration.
