

Gov. Holcomb honors businesses for longevity, service to Hoosier workforce

Governor Eric J. Holcomb today awarded 101 Indiana companies and organizations, including two from Grant County, with the Governor's Century or Half Century Business Award in recognition of each company's longevity and service to its employees, community and the state.

"I'm honored to recognize these dedicated, Hoosier business leaders who have created a lasting impact not only on their communities but to the state as a whole," said Gov. Holcomb. "As we continue to attract new jobs and investment to Indiana, these well-established businesses will set the tone for a Hoosier economy dedicated to hard work, constant improvement and strong community roots. I'm confident these businesses will continue providing great service for the next 100 years and keep Indiana on the path to success for centuries to come." The Governor's Century and Half Century Business Awards honor Hoosier businesses that have remained in operation for a minimum of 100 or 50 consecutive years and have demonstrated a commitment to community service. More than 1,160 Indiana companies have been recognized during the award's 30-year history. 2021 Half Century Award honorees for Grant County included: Idyl Wyld Roller Palace Inc. (Entertainment) - 84 years; Walnut Creek Golf Course Inc. (Entertainment) - 51 years. The Governor's Century and Half Century Business Awards ceremony at the Indiana Statehouse did not occur in 2020 due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
